Jonny Johansson

Creative director, Acne

Along with three tyros who'd never trained in fashion before, Jonny Johansson co-founded the Stockholm-based Acne in 1997. The quartet had big dreams for their brand, an acronym for 'Ambition to Create Novel Expressions', and the first business decision was to make 100 pairs of unisex jeans that were given away to friends, family and clients. Almost overnight, Acne became a cult fashion label. Under Johansson's canny direction, Acne Studios multi-tasks in furniture design, advertising and publishing (Acne Paper is one of our favourite reads).
